Bais Yaakov of Western Monmouth County is conveniently located in a beautiful facility just 11 miles north of Lakewood (at the Howell-Freehold border). It successfully opened its doors in September 2011 and will add an additional class each year, up to eighth grade. Our goal is to provide quality Limudei Kodesh and general studies education, so that our students will be able to attend the Bais Yaakov high school of their choice, and to pursue any career option.

MISSION Beginning with a strong foundation in pre-school, the students are imbued with a love for Torah learning and mitzvah observance, which is complemented by an excellent, high quality general studies education. The hand-picked, experienced teachers provide loving, individualized attention, enabling each student to reach her full potential. Bais Yaakov of Western Monmouth County is a school where learning is fun and fun is learning.

HANHALLA Rabbi Chaim Veshnefsky, Dean, is the mara d'asra of the Manalapan Community. He has been active in the field of education for over 20 years, developing curriculum, as well as teaching classes to children and adults. As a result of his successful work, there is a need for Bais Yaakov style education in Western Monmouth County. Rabbi Veshnefsky is an alumnus of Bais Medrash Govoha, in Lakewood, NJ, and the Yeshiva of Staten Island. All halachic and hashkafic questions concerning the school are directed to HaRav Reuven Feinstein, שליט"א, Rosh Yeshiva of Yeshiva of Staten Island.

Rabbi Baruch Sher, Menahel, brings a unique perspective to Bais Yaakov. He has many years of administrative experience, spearheading numerous innovative projects. His dedication to our school and tremendous enthusiasm for the community make him a powerful member of our hanhala. Rabbi Sher is an alumnus of Bais Medrash Govoha, in Lakewood, NJ, Mir Yerushalayim, and Yeshiva Derech Chaim. His unique combination of talents enables him to run the school with a clear focus on the success of our students.

We are privileged that Rabbi Yisroel Meir Rubinfeld, an executive school consultant of Torah Umesorah, has taken a personal interest in our school. Rabbi Rubinfeld has been involved since its founding, and has been available for consultation, faculty interviews, visits to the school, and general hadracha.

FACULTY We are very fortunate to have two handpicked, talented, and experienced teachers. They are highly qualified with extremely warm personalities. Their love for teaching brings out the best of each Bas Yisroel, raising her to her full potential.

Morah Leah Weiss teaches the Limudei Kodesh. Morah Leah is in her fifth year of teaching, having taught previously this specific age group in the Politz Day School of Cherry Hill as well as in Bais Faiga and Bnos Orchos Chaim of Lakewood.

Morah Miriam Brisman is the teacher for the Limudei Chol. Morah Miriam is in her fourth year of teaching, having taught previously in Bnos Bracha of Passaic.
